THE CLASS OF 1917

TENTH REUNION BRINGS GREATEST NUMBER--- 1907 LEADS

Blueprints Compose Costumes

1907 with 58 at their tenth reunion has led all the classes in the number returning, though, in spite of war-time economy, all the reunions have been unusually large.

The class that planted the first class tree, 1897, has been 35 strong at its twentieth reunion. The historic tree is an oak outside of Dalton and this year the class had to go to the Pike and buy three yards of ribbon to tie around it. Red hat, tie and stockings and white dress is their costume. Their class baby, Helen Hutchins Weist, the daughter of Alice Cilley Weist, will enter next year and on Wednesday her mother gave a tea for her at Bryn Mawr.

At 1907's banquet, held Saturday evening in Pembroke, their class president, who is also an ex-president of the Athletic Association, Esther Williams Althorp, spoke. The toastmistress was A. Cannon and the other speakers were Dean Schenck, H. Houghtelling, Mrs. Cecil Barnes (M. Ayer), G. Hutchins, the Chinese missionary who spoke last fall at China Night; E. Thayer, reader in French here, and M. O'Sullivan, whose blank verse translation of "Pallas" was printed in the Lantern Night number of the News. Green cloth turtles hung around their necks distinguished 1907. Their reunion had been arranged for by Mrs. Barnes, who arrived early last week, and A. Hawkins, warden of Merion.

At 1912's fifth reunion banquet, in Radnor Saturday night, 35 were present. M. Alden Lane was toastmistress, and L. Watson, C. Hammer, M. Thompson, and C. Welles were the speakers.

SENIOR ORALS ARE DEFINITELY ABOLISHED

Written Examinations Will Take Their Place Next Year

OFFICIAL ACCOUNT OF CHANGE

The senior oral examinations having been abolished by the faculty, written examinations will be given next year in their place at the time scheduled for the oral examinations and will be conducted by two committees of three each elected in French and in German by the faculty, one member of the department concerned being elected to act as chairman.

New Entrance Requirements

Many changes have been made in the entrance requirements of Bryn Mawr College which will be optional in 1918 and following years, and obligatory from 1921. The examination in the fourth language will be done away with. Candidates will be required to offer as at present Mathematics, Latin, English, 4 points each; an examination in either Greek, French, or German, counting 3 points, somewhat more difficult than the present Greek, French, and German, the examinations being equivalent to French A and B or German A and B of the College Entrance Examination Board; Ancient History, counting one point in and after 1919; Physics counting 2 points, in and after 1919; English History, about equivalent to four periods a week for one year, counting 1 point; American History, being permitted to be substituted, if schools can furnish proof that English History cannot be taught in the school courses, optional in 1918 and following years, obligatory in 1921; Physiology and Hygiene, or Chemistry, or Physical Geography, or Botany, equivalent to about 3 periods a week for one year, counting 1 point, optional in 1918 and following years, obligatory in 1921.

It is hoped by the faculty that by reducing the amount of language work required or preparation and by requiring subjects like history and science, students may enter Bryn Mawr better prepared than at present for their college work.

Changes in A. B. Curriculum

Important changes have also been made in the courses required for an A.B. degree, these changes being in great part a consequence of dropping the oral examinations in French and German for seniors.

On the first Saturday of each college year every undergraduate student must take an hour's written examination in the foreign language, Greek or French, or German, which she offered at entrance. This examination must be taken in every year of the college course until graduation. Students entering with Greek will be excused from the written examination in Greek at the beginning of the year following the year in which they have elected and passed a minor or major course in Greek.

On the second Saturday of the junior year, every junior must take an examination in a language which she did not offer at entrance, Greek, or French, or German, or Spanish, students entering with Greek being required to take French or German. This examination will be elementary in character, about equivalent to 3 periods a week for one year in preparatory schools or to elementary Greek, French, or German in the college, provided that only about an hour and a half of outside preparation is required for each hour of lecture.

Juniors who fail to pass this examination.

VARSITY TAKE ALUMNÆ GAME

Athletic Prizes Awarded

The alumnae celebrated Bryn Mawr's fifth Athletic Day yesterday morning with a triumphal procession from Pembroke Arch to the lower hockey field. With them marched the alumnae and varsity basket-ball teams, whose game, won by varsity 18-2, preceded the presentation of cups and yellow ties.

After the game, T. Howell, president of the Athletic Association, presented the individual and class athletic cups. Gold scarf pins in the shape of miniature hockey sticks were presented to the members of the Varsity hockey team in memory of their championship season and the victory over All-Philadelphia. The cup for the all-around athletic championship, presented last year by Miss Applebee in honour of the class of 1916, was won by 1917, champions in four sports, with a total of 185 1-6 points.

The cup for first team hockey championship went to 1917, the second and third to 1919, in tennis and swimming, 1920 carried off the honours. The freshmen took the cups for first team singles and doubles, while M. S. Cary '20 won the individual college championship. 1920 also secured the class cup for swimming, and two freshmen, M. S. Cary and K. Townsend, tied for the individual cup.

1917 won the only water-polo cup, that for first team championship, as well as the corresponding awards in basket-ball and track. The individual track cup was won for the third time by H. Harris '17, who was also awarded a special track cup to be held for good. The second team basket-ball cup was captured by 1920, the third team by 1918.

First class swimming medals, aside from those already presented to the

A True Story

Once upon a time there was a girl who was continually dissatisfied on the subject of her "senior oral examinations in French and German". First she complained that it was impossible to get to them on time and that she ran the risk of losing by default. So her kind instructors instituted the custom of sophomore runners—with their general connotation of "being shot at sunrise". Next the girl complained that she took no French or German in college and had forgotten in her senior year what she knew for her entrance examinations. Then to remedy this defect her twice kind instructors gave her little French and German books to read each summer to prevent her from forgetting and here her summer was "ruined"! "But this is only a farce," she protested afresh, "on principle, I never do merely recommend reading". So the thrice kind instructors offered—indeed required—"mock orals" to welcome the girl in the fall. "Orals are barbarous" was her next sweeping denunciation and now she will write instead of speak before the dread triumvirate.

Who benefits by the change?—why the song-writers; for now they have found a new rhyme for their verses, "trembling hand and pen" instead of the traditional "voice".

Go on, Mighty Seniors!

Though the red banner will hang on the gym next year for hockey, water-polo, and basket-ball, no victorious emblem will be needed to remind the college of the outgoing senior class. For the record of the class which has won three triple championships and under whose lead the Varsity hockey team first defeated All-Philadelphia includes more than sporting honors. 1917's academic average is one of the highest ever reached at Bryn Mawr. Nineteen seniors have an average of 80 or over and four graduate Magna Cum Laude. Only two have an average of less than 70.

In the matter of abolishing irksome traditions 1916 largely cleared the way last year, but 1917 has departed from custom in the giving of original senior plays. Their significance may be measured by the furore they created.

Finally, 1917 will be vaunted in tradition as the last class to undergo ordeal by fire, the "last class to take the senior orals".

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

(The editors do not hold themselves responsible for opinions expressed in this column)

To the Editor of the College News:

May I introduce Bryn Mawr through the College News to the Intercollegiate Alumnae Athletic Association? The Association, which is the outgrowth of the work of the Barnard Alumnae Committee on Athletics, was formed a little over a year ago. In its membership of more than 400 there are 56 colleges and universities represented.

Of course, you are more interested in the future than in the past and if those of you who live in or near New York will join us next winter you will have abundant opportunity for good basket-ball and swimming and dancing, and almost everything else you can think of. For the summer, tennis courts have been rented and all-day hikes and week-end parties are being planned. College Day this year will be celebrated at Camp Inkowa, Sterling Forest, N. J., on June 16 and 17. Perhaps if you come to Saturday afternoon hockey practice in the fall we can have a team that will beat next year's varsity. Beginning in October there will be riding classes with instruction for beginners, drills for intermediates, and bare back and polo for the more daring spirits. All this you can have at "bargain rates", for the Association is a true example of community co-operation and except for annual dues of two dollars (which cover the expenses of running the various committees, printing of notices and postage, etc.) the fee for each activity is the actual cost per individual.

You will find that the weekly classes are a fine way to keep up with college friends—and to make new ones. Alumnae of ten or twenty years ago play with as much abandon as last year's A. B.'s. Vassar and Smith vie with Bryn Mawr and Mount Holyoke for the basket-ball championship. Bryn Mawr did not win this year—but with your help it may next year.

If you don't want to join the Association now, cut this out and put it where you will find it next fall. Take my word for it, about the middle of October you will begin to long for hockey or swimming or even for Heavy Gym.

Miss Charlotte Hand, 373 Washington Avenue, Brooklyn, will be glad to answer any questions or to send you membership application blanks.

New York, May 26.

Agnes Morrow 1912.

To the Editor of the College News:

The Boston Athletic Association of Collegiate Alumnae, which meets for basket-ball, hockey, tennis, gym, and anything else which members want, is anxious for new members. Any holder of a degree from Bryn Mawr, or from any other four-year college course, is eligible, and applications for membership may be made to M. Edwina Warren, 41 Middlesex Road, Chestnut Hill, Mass.

Do join if you are in or near Boston next winter. Elizabeth Ayer '14, Mary Coolidge '14, Edwina Warren '14, Gertrude Emery '15, or Miss Applebee will be glad to give any information about the club.

Every one who enjoyed athletics in college will find organized exercises after college not only healthful but most enjoyable. The annual dues are very small and the more members the less dues.

M. Edwina Warren '14.

Tenth Reunion Brings Greatest Number

A picnic took the place of 1914's supper on Monday evening and about 40 came back for it.

An ex-president of Self-Government, E. B. Smith, was '15's toastmistress at their banquet in Merion Saturday. The speakers were H. Bradford, Dean of Women at Leland Stanford University; I. Foster, founder of the College News; O. Erdaloh, M. Jacobs, M. Keller Heyl, mother of the class baby; A. Kenyon, an ex-president of the Undergraduate Association; M. M. Chamberlain Moore, K. McCollin, and E. Van Horn. The headquarters for 1915 have been in Rockefeller. They had no costume this year.

An oyster shell on a light blue ribbon composed 1916's costume. 39 were present at their banquet on Saturday evening in Rockefeller, where L. Klein was toastmistress. The speakers were A. Werner, ex-president of the Undergraduate Association; D. Packard, M. Dodd Sangree, M. Russell, ex-president of Self-Government, and M. Branson, ex-president of the Athletic Association. The class bulletins recording the "past, present and future" of 1916 were place cards. Their headquarters have been in Merion. The money saved on costumes was voted to the support of a French orphan.

NO MORE COLLECTIONS FOR BELGIANS

$3200 Sent Since March

Over $3200 collected by the Bryn Mawr Belgian Committee since March 5th, for the support of Beersel, near Malines, Antwerp, was sent to Mr. Alexander Hemp-hill, treasurer of the American Commission for Relief in Belgium, before June 1st, the last day when the Commission would receive contributions. Owing to the government loan to Belgium no pledges will be collected hereafter. Last week the committee refunded many advance payments on pledges.

Approximately $1200 of the $3200 was given by the Alumnae and faculty, and $2000 by the students. $1200 went to the Commission in three monthly payments of Bryn Mawr's $400 a month pledges and the balance was sent May 31st in accordance with the request of Mr. Hoover. In a letter to the Bryn Mawr "associates" of the Commission Mr. Hoover sent his thanks to the subscribers as individuals and as an organized group.

That the Belgian Relief and the Red Cross Committees of the C. A. combine next year under the head of the War Relief has been proposed. The executive of the Belgian Relief are E. Houghton '18, F. Howell '19, K. Clifford '20, and H. Fuller, graduate.

Freshmen Cut Least, Juniors Most Annual Statistics Compiled

The statistics of the Undergraduate Cutting Committee show that on an average 1920 has taken the least unexcused cuts, with 1917 a close second; 1918, the most, with 1919 next. In the matter of recording the cuts 1919 and 1920 have been more exact than 1917 and 1918. As the hall representatives have been unable to collect all of 1917's cut cards for May the figures in their case are an estimate.

These statistics have been made out on a slightly different basis from those of the office. Unavoidable cuts, such as those for illness in the student's family, have been counted excused. Hence the unexcused cuts represent those which are really illegitimate and should not have been taken.

The office statistics for the last third of the semester have not yet come.

Billy Sunday at Baccalaureate

Evidently feeling that to some members of the congregation a suggestion to "brighten the corner where you are" might not be untimely, the skilled Italian workmen supplied the platform seats for Baccalaureate last Sunday with Billy Sunday hymn books. Detected by a discerning eye they were removed a few minutes before the service.

Senior Orals Abolished

tion will be required to go into tutoring classes and pay for them at the present rates. They will not have another opportunity to be examined until the second Saturday of their senior year. If they fail to pass this examination they must wait over for their degree and try the same examination again at the beginning of the next college year, this rule requiring them to defer their degrees admitting of no exception.

Students failing to pass any one of the four written examinations in the language offered for entrance will in like manner be required to go into tutoring classes and the fact of having passed the written examination in one year will not save them from being put into a tutoring class in the next year if they fail to pass. As in the former oral examinations, eternal vigilance is the price of safety.

AGGRESSIVE STUDENTS WANTED

New Positions Before B. M. Bureau

Any student "industrious, aggressive, and capable, who actually wants employment of a responsible nature during the summer months" is invited through a letter just received by the Appointment Bureau to write to the Thomas Manufacturing Co., makers of phonograph parts, Dayton, Ohio. For a "quiet, studious, serious-minded girl", on the other hand, there is an opening with the J. Walter Thompson Advertising Co. to do stenographic work in their branch office in Cincinnati.

The most recent teaching position the Bureau has been asked to fill is in the Madison, New Jersey, high school. "Candidate must be a college graduate, a Protestant, of good appearance, interested in high school pupils and their school activities and have at least one year's experience in high school work". The subjects to be taught are German, Algebra, and Plane Geometry. The position pays $850.

WAR CUTS COMMENCEMENT FESTIVITIES AT MEN'S COLLEGES

Patriotic Demonstrations Replace Spreads—Yale Crew Race Abandoned

On account of the war Harvard, Yale, Columbia, Princeton and other colleges are radically modifying their commencement gayeties. Reunions, spreads, and dances are being cut down and at some universities preparedness demonstrations will take their place.

"Many a senior will receive his bachelor's degree clad in khaki", says the New York Times. "At Harvard many class day features will be omitted and there will be no ball game or boat race with Yale. At Princeton plans have been practically completed to make the annual commencement a great demonstration of loyalty. A mass meeting and parade will be held in the Stadium, where the Princeton unit of the Reserve Officers' Training Corps will march in review before distinguished visitors. In the evening another patriotic mass meeting will be held on the front campus".

SPORTING NEWS

The alumnae who played in the Alumnae-Varsity water-polo practise last Saturday afternoon were: Forwards, A. Miller '14, F. Kellogg '16, E. Strauss '16; halfback, L. Dillingham '16; fullbacks, E. Ayer '14, C. Kellen '16; goal, M. Coolidge '14. Several changes in this line-up were made for the match on Monday.

The freshmen swimming medals were presented Wednesday night at the senior singing by T. Howell '18, president of the Athletic Association.

The Rosemary Hall hockey team, coached this year by F. Kellogg '16, Director of Athletics at Rosemary, was beaten only once throughout the season and then by All-Philadelphia. Bryn Mawr beat All-Philadelphia 3-0.

M. Stair '18 and M. S. Carey '20 played last week in the patriotic tennis tournament for Pennsylvania and the eastern states held at the Merion Cricket Club. M. Stair reached the third round, meeting defeat at the hands of Mrs. Knud Dahl, the Swiss champion.

The Varsity Hockey Committee for next year, appointed by the Athletic Board, is: M. Bacon '18, chairman; G. Hearne '19, M. M. Carey '20, and Miss Applebee.

1920 has elected M. M. Carey class hockey captain for next year.

12 MEDALS WON THIS YEAR

Given to Freshmen at Senior Singing

On account of the absence of freshmen from Athletic Day the precedent was established last Wednesday evening of awarding the freshmen swimming medals at senior singing. T. Howell '18, president of the Athletic Association, presented 1st class medals to M. S. Cary, K. Townsend, K. Cauldwell, P. Helmar; 2nd class to M. R. Brown and B. Weaver. M. M. Carey, H. Holmes, A. Moebius made 3rd class.

Swimming medals, given on Athletic Day were: 1st class, 1917, H. Harris, L. Chase, E. Russell, M. Willard; 2nd class, E. Dulles '17, H. Spalding '19. 3rd class, 1917, Allport, Davis, Malone, Blodgett, Collins, Stevens. 1918, Gest, Newlin, L. T. Smith. 1919, Ewen. 1920, M. M. Carey, H. Holmes, Moebius.

COLLEGE BREAKFAST TODAY

Besides the toastmistress, E. Dabney '19, the speakers for College Breakfast, held to-day at noon in the gymnasium, include in order of speeches: Helen Robins '92, Janet Holmes '19, Mrs. Corinne Putnam Smith ex-'97, Thalia Smith '17, Ellen Thayer '09, Larie Klein '18, Helene Johnson '19, Charlotte Dodge '18, Mary Shipley Allinson '14, Natalie McFaden '17, Harriet Bradford '15, Constance Hall '17.

English Club President Will Also Manage "Tip"

M. Rupert '18 has been elected next year's President of English Club. She is also to be editor-in-chief of Tipyn o' Bob, after serving on the board since her sophomore year. In the elections a few weeks ago she was chosen President of the French Club.

WOMEN INCLUDED IN MILITARY RECORDS

New York Women Take Census

"For the first time in the history of the country", says the New York Times, "a military census is to include women as well as men. This census also deviates from its predecessors in that women volunteers will take an active part in the actual work of enumeration. Chief among the organizations taking part are the National League for Women's Service, with Mrs. Golet Gallatin at the head, and the State Suffrage League, directed by Mrs. Norman de R. Whitehouse. According to Miss Esther E. Lape, chairman of the Resource Mobilization Committee, a division of the Department of Coöperating agencies, the census work will do much toward showing the women their comparative strength and how they fit into the work as a whole".

A similar census dividing the students into agricultural, business, scientific, and hospital reserves was made last year by Dr. Marlon Parris Smith '01.

"MODELS" REACH "PLASTIC" STAGE

Original Dances in Fourth Annual Demonstration of Eurythmics

The fourth annual demonstration of the Jacques-Dalcroze Eurythmics by the pupils of the Model School, given last Friday afternoon in the gymnasium under the direction of Monsieur de Montollu, included dances composed by members of the class and the singing at sight of a melody. President Thomas and several of the Directors of the college were present.

The purpose of the work in eurythmics is to cultivate to a very exact understanding of music (values of notes, rhythm, accent, phrasing, tempo, etc.) and also to acquire the muscular control necessary to realize the music in action. When the pupil is able to express the music by means of these arbitrary movements, and her understanding of the music is obvious, the motions may be varied and expression becomes more "plastic".

In former years the children had not arrived at the plastic stage, but last Friday the two upper classes took part in dances referred to on the program as "independent control: plastic canon", "Les petites filles de pierre, a plastic study of E. Jacques-Dalcroze", and "Expressive accents and dynamic shading; plastic interpretation of rhythms".

Ten Enter Alumnae Tournament

Wisconsin Champion in Finals

A. Miller '14, manager of the alumnae tennis tournament which was played off last Monday, was one of the doubles champions of the state of Wisconsin in 1914 and 1915, and E. Ayer '14, who reached the semi-finals Monday morning, has won a tournament at the Oakley Country Club in Cambridge, Massachusetts. Both these players made Varsity while in college.

Among the ten entries were: E. Hill '16, A. Werner '16, E. B. Kirk '16, I. Smith '15, E. Warren '14, E. Balderston '14, A. Hawkins '07, M. Rockwell Moorhaus '04.

WHOLE CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION WILL BELONG TO I. C. S. A.

Vida Scudder Praises Dr. Kingsbury
By a plan accepted at the recent conference at Mt. Ivy, Bryn Mawr will belong through the C. A. to the Intercollegiate Community Service Association, as the former College Settlement organization is now called, and of which Dr. Kingsbury is president. The whole C. A. will consequently be responsible for the dues, the amount of which is to be arranged later.

In an article on the new I. C. S. A. in "The Survey" for June 2d, Dr. Vida Scudder writes:

"The best is the last to be told: the association has secured for its leaders Susan M. Kingsbury, director of the Carola Woerisboffer graduate school for social studies at Bryn Mawr, and Helen Greene, long intimate with civic and settlement work. Dr. Kingsbury brings to this new enterprise executive ability, wide experience, and devoted faith in the contribution to be made by educated women to the ideals of the new fraternal world toward which in these dark days our faces are resolutely set. Her department at Bryn Mawr represents the first attempt connected with any women's college to train graduates for social service, and Bryn Mawr and the C. S. A. should both profit by her assumption of leadership in the intercollegiate movement".

CAMPUS NOTES

Dr. and Mrs. Carl Jesson (Myra Richards '15) have a daughter, born May 31.

Part of the campus between Rockefeller Hall and the athletic fields has been plowed up and will be farmed by some of the professors this summer.

W. Perkins '19 has announced her engagement to Mr. Anton Raven, Jr., of New Brunswick, N. J.

Miss Georgiana G. King sailed last Saturday for Spain to continue some work in archeology.

Science Club elected M. Strauss '18, president, and M. France '19, secretary, at the elections held last week.

Rural Life Combined With Orals

A combination of rural life and senior "orals" is offered this summer by Monsieur and Madame Jean Baptiste Beck at their farm near Paoli. Work on the farm will afford students an opportunity to defray tutoring expenses in French or German.

The fee for room and board exclusive of any tutoring is from eight or ten dollars a week.

Reservations should be made as soon as possible to Madame Beck, Monjoy Farm, Yellow Springs Head, R. F. D. No. 1, Malvern, Pa.

WATER POLO GOES TO VARSITY
L. C. Harman '14, Alumnae Star

In a closely contested game in which the score was tied at the end of the first half the Alumnae went down to defeat before the Varsity 3-1 Monday afternoon.

L. Cox Harman '14, Alumnae captain, opened the game with a neat goal from almost the center of the pool, and did the best work for her team. In the second half she outplayed T. Howell '18, Varsity's star halfback, who declared Mrs. Harman was the strongest player she ever met in the pool. Strong support by A. Miller '14, at forward, and the firm Alumnae defense held the Varsity down to 2 goals, both made by M. Willard, Varsity captain. The third goal tallied against the Alumnae was accidentally made by E. Ayer '14, Alumnae goal.

Nearly all the fouling was done by Varsity.

Line-up:

Alumnae	Varsity
A. Miller '14.....F.....M. Willard '17	(Captain)
L. C. Harman '14...C. F. ...V. Litchfield '17	(Captain)
O. Emery '15.....F.....M. O'Connor '19	F. Lanier '19
C. Dowd '18.....H. B.T. Howell '18	M. Cooldige '14.....F. B.C. Hall '17
C. Kellen '18.....F. B.C. Stevens '17	E. Ayer '14.....O.A. Davis '17

Goals: Alumnae—Lillian Cox Harman, 1; Varsity—M. Willard, 2, Alumnae, 1.

Substitutes: Alumnae—L. Cadbury '14 for C. Kellen '18.

Referee—Miss Applebee.

Score—Alumnae, 1; Varsity, 3.

Time—5 minute halves.

ALUMNAE NOTES

Anna MacClanahan '06 (Mrs. Wilfred Grenfell) has a daughter, born this spring.

Eleanor Washburn ex-'14 was married on June 2nd to Charles Emery, of Colorado Springs.

Nancy Van Dyke ex-'14 was married on May 7th to Mr. Gilbert Scribner, of Winnetka.

The wedding of Rose Marsh '08 and the Rev. Jacob Simpson Payton will take place on June 18th at Pittsburgh, Pa.

Marjory Cheney ex-'06 and Emily Cross '01 are sailing on June 9th for France to work with Dr. M. Putnam '09 on the Franco-American Committee for the Care of Children of the Frontier.

Shirley Putnam '09 will sail on the "Rochambeau" on June 23d to do relief work in France.

Alice Ames ex-'13 has announced her engagement to Dr. Bronson Crothera, of Cambridge. Dr. Crothera has sailed with the Harvard Unit for France.

Leah Cadbury '14 is sailing on June 16th for Bordeaux. She will spend a year in England working in the Friends' Ambulance Unit Hospital in Birmingham.

Margaret Morris '08 was married this spring to Mr. Ray Hoskins of New Haven. Professor and Mrs. Donald Baird (Louise Wagner ex-'16) have a daughter, born June 2d.

Christine Hammer '12 and Elizabeth Faries '12 will sail for China on July 25th. They will join C. Arthurs '12, who is teaching at the True Light Seminary at Canton.

VARSITY VICTORIOUS IN TENNIS

Alumnae Win Second Court by Default

Varsity defeated Alumnae two out of three in the tennis matches played on the upper courts last Tuesday afternoon. Varsity lost the second court by default.

A. Miller '14 put up a stiff fight against M. S. Cary '20 on the first court, but the final score was 6-4, 7-5 against her. On the third court H. Balen ex-'07 won her first set 6-4 from M. Stair '18, but lost the last two 2-6, 1-6.

1917 HAS SENIOR BANQUET

M. B. O'Shea Toastmistress

The seniors held their class banquet Monday evening in Pembroke, with M. B. O'Shea as toastmistress. The speakers were K. Blodgett, Eleanor Jencks (ex-'17), I. Diamond, and C. Hall.

BACCALAUREATE PREACHED BY DR. SHAW
Treats Expansion of Woman's Sphere

The baccalaureate sermon Sunday night was preached by Dr. Anna Howard Shaw, on the necessity for change and development in the life of women. Passing over the theory that woman's life is "one steady calm of ceaseless, changeless content", Dr. Shaw gave examples of the wide activities of women in the early Christian church, and led up to the responsibility of the world toward women to-day. The choir sang a special anthem, Kipling's Recessional, set to music by Reginald de Koven.

SIXTY-NINE TO RECEIVE A.B.'s
DR. TENNENT PRESENTS A.M.'s

Sixty-nine A.B.'s will be awarded this morning at the thirty-second Commencement of Bryn Mawr. An innovation is the presentation of the A.M. degrees by the new secretary of the council, Dr. Tennent. Dr. Huff, secretary of the faculty, is to award the A.B.'s. Ph.D.'s are awarded to the seven candidates by the professors in whose departments they have worked for their degree.

The national anthem will open the Commencement ceremony and Mr. Carter will make the opening prayer. After the presentation of degrees, and the awarding of the prizes, scholarships, and fellowships previously announced by President Thomas, Mr. Thomas Raeburn White, a member of the Corporation and of the Board of Directors, and a lawyer instrumental in the League to Enforce Peace, will speak on "International Reorganization after the War". The recession will be "Thou Gracious Inspiration".

M. Tyler, president of 1919 and head marshal, will lead the academic procession from the Library to the Gymnasium. Marshalled by 16 sophomores elected by the senior class, the procession before inversion will march in this order: 1920, 1919, 1918, graduates, alumnae, former members of the class of 1917, 1917, candidates for A.M.'s, fellows, and candidates for Ph.D.'s.

Report Refers to University Cramping

In a leading article published last Friday the College News created a false impression by the caption, "Old School a Travesty on Education". The report of the Academic Committee of the alumnae, quoted under this head, did not refer to the Bryn Mawr Tutoring School as a travesty, but to schools of a similar character conducted in connection with universities.
