PHILADELPHIA CRICKET CLUB DEFENDS VARSITY TENNIS

With the general level of playing not up to form, Bryn Mawr varsity lost all five matches played with the Philadelphia Cricket Club last Saturday morning. Miss Thayer defeated K. B., 6-0, 6-2; Mrs. Huff defeated H. Rice, 23, 6-0, 6-2; Mrs. Knafl defeated E. Rode, 24, 6-4, 6-2; Miss Morris defeated A. B., 6-1, 6-4, 6-2; and Miss Wood defeated W. W., 6-1, 6-4, 6-2.

Miss Thayer, who played first, is the Philadelphia champion. Her game was probably the best of her career, but Wood gave her a good rally she kept the upper hand.

The second match was slow and enervating. Mrs. Thayer, who is the closest, both players maintaining a steady even game. The Wood-Morris contest was the best, the former taking her game through her swift playing. Miss Wood and W. Worren contested in a good steady game.

ELEKTRA PLAYED IN OPEN AIR

Edith Wyman Matheson in Title Role

With Miss Edith Wyman Matheson in the title role, Sir Gilbert Murray's translation of the Elektra was played last Sat-day afternoon on the lawn of Mr. James Croody Brown's estate at Ardsboro. With only two exceptions the supporting cast was drawn from the peeples and graduates of Miss Bennett's school, Millbrook, N. Y., where Miss Matheson, for the past two years, has had special classes in drama.

Set against a two-foot, eye-covered cloud of dust, Richard and Gordon, rounding it, the out-door of stage was unusually beautiful. The scene showed the kitchen of the house and, on stage an altar to Dyoniso. Gertrude Ely, '28, as the priest of Dyoniso, carried the flag of the goblins to the altar, smothering incense and placed it on the altar.

Though the amateurs might have been expected to show drawback disadvantage to an actress of Miss Matheson's reputation and experience, to drop in the level of appreciation was admirable. Miss Scholickoff, in particular, as one of the graduates at Miss Bennett's school at the Bennett School, interpreted the part of Orestes with remarkable success. Miss Matheson had true dramatic genius. Finished voice-world through, and especially the low, pleasing pitch which was accentuated by the rich, clear, pleasant color necessary for one in all parts were played by women.

The dancers danced and singing, to music which was an interpretation rather than an attempt to reproduce, the Greek original, and with a delightful effect which were from the directors and as a result, inspired. The interpreted of figures were done as far as the limitations of space allowed without an addition to split the dance in the other into the color and variety of motion the dances added immeasurably to the poetic effect of Elektra. The excitement of the Greek tragedy was carried out by each dancer in a thoroughly artistic way.

The orchestra, under the direction of Miss Matheson in Washington last Monday, Miss Matheson and her players will give performances at Mt. Holyoke, Smith, Williams and Waseda Colleges.

M. W. Littauer, 22, and E. Child, 23, were assistant editors for this issue.

Adipico and An entertaining mechanism a Capella piano company, with decay lecturers and an art photographer, often caught by Bryan Mawr fairly in its trap. What would be considered a large -chapel audience throned to this edgy ing and sat through it to the last record—another pathetic instance of the thrust for music that burned in undergradate hearts. A subsequent provision for vidians, especially if one can, may judge, by the thirty or so students who attended the Mendesocha Club concert last Saturday night. Ten cents, of course, is a great deal to spend on a concert when there is a victory in every hall, and when the price of sweet, fresh orange rooks one can spend from anything.

The fact that the music is the best music sung by the famous choirs of the country bears no weight, since to all appearance Bryan Mawr doesn't know what great music is. But as a result the society can hardly be ignored, and the sooner that frequent concerts at the college have established a live music on its campus, Bryan Mawr will recredit the field she so tellfully neglected.

"The Merry" Ten years a time in this "Dancec"

meridian the "Merry Dan-cell the sky with great streamers of yellow, red, green and violet. Their last exhibition on Saturday was the most brillian that has been seen here for thirty years. It was due, according to some authorities, to an explosion in the sun, and the purpose of the show which is the volcans of the sun.

"The Merry Dancers," as they are called in the Shetland Islands from their flickering lights, given back by "the point ing al-toward the magnetic North." Aurora Borealis, is the light that comes from the Greek of "Dawn" and "North"; and to the American Indian they were known as the "Ghost Fires" or "Dance of the De-

Deprised Spirits."

The best established theory of their cause is that they are produced by electrons radiating from the surface of the sun. These electrons hit the earth's atmosphere where they cause an electrical discharge somewhat resembling a lightning storm. Their color is due to the gase of the upper atmosphere. The shimmering and extent of the glow is due to the small density of the gasses. It is estimated that these moves with a speed sufficient to make the journey from the sun in about forty-eight hours.

Foreign Affairs. "Countries' attraction vary according to the amount of intervening ocean. So the Europeans plan to spend the summer in America and the Americans plan to spend the holiday in Europe. It would seem advisable for Europeans who are coming here to get acquainted with America before the holiday is well seg a great deal more of them. For judging from the percentage going abroad from Bryan Mawr, the total of Bryan Mawr students in the United States will meet few besides his own countrymen.

SENIOR TAKE FIRST SECOND TEAM GAME FROM 1924

Red Speed Puts Light Blue Teamwork at Discount
Smashing through the Freshman defense, 1924 fought to 1924 to a 26-14-defeat last Saturday morning in the first game of the second team finals.

After a flustering start, the speedy pass of the Red guards and quick shooting of the forwards brought the score to the end of the first half to 17-5 for the Seniors.

The Light Blue picked up in the second half considerably, with pretty dribbling by M. Palache at center and good teamwork between her and K. Elston and M. Angell forwards.

E. Sullivan, 24, covered her opponent well but the combined efforts of her team could not prevent further scoring by the Seniors.

Goals from throws—1924: C. Bickley, K. Elston, M. Angell.*

FRESHMEN VANQUISH 1923'S THIRD IN PRELIMINARIES

In a confused, fast game the Light Blue put 1923 out of the competition on third by a second victory last Friday afternoon, with a 21-18 score.

From the start 1923's teamwork had a telling effect in the disorganization of the Green team, culminating in M. Angell's repeated tallies by E. Blandley, 21, and J. Beaunderis, 23, played a strong game, but frequently lost the ball under the goal to 1924's active guards.

Goals. From throws—1923: J. Beaudrais; R. Beaudrais; 1924: H. Beaudrais.*

SPORTING NOTES

1922's sports captains for next year are: Hockey, E. Blandley; tennis, O. Howard; swimming, E. Neel; apparatus, E. Rogers; water-polo, E. Anderson. Other captains will be selected before season's open. Vassar tennis team will play varsity on Saturday at 2:30.

SENIOR SECOND OUTPLAYS 1922 IN LAST SECOND TEAM MATCH

E. Anderson Makes Victory Difficult for Red Team

Spending up on their work of the second preliminary, which was a close 26-20 victory for the Dark Blue, 1922 wrested the deciding second team game from the Juniors last Friday with a score of 19-15.

Despite the magnificent fight put up by E. Anderson, the Junior center, 1923, was able to make good his passing through the skillful shooting of J. Spurrey, who starred at forward. More effective teamwork characterized the Senior play throughout; for though the Junior center dribbled the length of the field frequently it was only to lose the ball in fumbling under the goal. G. Melton, 22, played a strong defensive game, covering C. Bickley, 21, to the end.

The line-up:

1922: L. Grin, M. Crosby, E. Anderson, C. Reht, G. Melton,*

Goals from throws—1921: J. Spurrey, C. Bickley,

1922: L. Grin, E. Anderson.*

Substitutes: E. Kales, 21, for C. Bickley, 21.

1924 SECOND TEAM ELIMINATES SOPHOMORES IN TWO GAMES

Three games in a row 1924's second team won its way into the finals in two matches.

Starting A. Howell's shooting and V. Corse's ready action, 1924 put up a good fight but could not withstand 1923's vigorous onslaught. E. Sullivan, 24, was effective at guard, blocking well and passing to the forwards, whose clever shooting picked up the score rapidly. K. Elston, forward, made nine baskets for the Light Blue

GREEN TURNS TABLES ON 1924 IN LAST FIRST-TEAM PRELIMINARY

Fresnmen Go Down to Defeat in Blow Third Game at Hands of Green

Riding over 1924's victory early in the season, 1923 went into the finals with a 25-15 triumph Friday afternoon in the third game of the preliminaries with a score of 25-15. Though the Sophomores, keeping the lead from the start, showed superior teamwork and at times spectacular shooting, the Blue was less interesting than in the extra-period game on Tuesday in which 1924 wrested a 26-20 victory.

The persistent work of the guards on both sides prevented scoring early in the game Friday, and the shooting was wild. Spreading up, 1924 jumped into the lead centering about H. Rice, who played a strong game at forward throughout both games, while M. Adams, who was frequently free to shoot, added substantially to the Sophomore score with her spectacular baskets. Against this steady cooperation, 1924's slack offensive was ineffective, except when E. Howe warmed up to some good shooting towards the end after B. McRae's long dribbles. 1924 got the start up again and again, the passing from A. Clement to the Green forwards being especially clever.

At the game on Tuesday the teams tied for two extra five-minute periods, but 1924, fighting to the end, tapped in the last basket. ...More intelligent tactics caracterized this game.

The line-up on Friday was—

1924: E. Anderson, E. Garrison, B. McRae, F. Martin, E. Ellington,* E. Fisk, E. Sullivan,

1921: E. Anderson,* E. Fisk, E. Sullivan, J. Recht, G. Melton,*

Substitutes: J. Goodrich, 21, for E. Anderson, 25; E. Lewis.

RED FIRST IN TENNIS FINALS

Seniors first and second team defeated the Freshmen in the preliminaries. The finals have not yet been all played off.

NEWS IN BRIEF

Student advisors are being chosen to-night by the Membership Committee, from the group who signed up to the list in Taylor Hall.

Speches on the last day of classes were made by Eleanor Bowell, European Fellow on Taylor steps; by Marynia Foot on the library; by Emily Kintigh on the gymnasium; by Katharine Woodward at Dalton Hall, and by Elizabeth Taylor, president of the Senior class, under Pembroke arch.

Students are asked by the Junk Committee to save any discarded bloomers, gymnasium or heavy walking shoes, bathing suits, sweaters, tennis balls and rackets for the use of the Labor School this summer.

A collection will be made by the committee. 1923 has elected I. Beneditus to the Scenery Committee of the Undergraduate Associated, and D. Fitz to the Students' Building Committee.

The French Club has elected C. Cameron, '23, president; J. Beauregard, '23, vice-president and treasurer, and B. Godfrey, '24, secretary.

The Social Service Committee has been serving supper to the alumnae basketball team after their weekly practices, both as a means of adding to the committee's funds and to serve the alumnae with a supper at less expense than would be otherwise possible.

FRESHMEN HAVE MOST ENTRIES IN LOWER TEAM FINALS

On the lower teams the Freshmen have won their way to the finals, meeting 1921 and 1922 on sixth, seventh and eighth. The results of the preliminaries stand as follows since the last News:

FRESHMAN THIRD CRUSHES 1921 IN FIRST ENCOUNTER OF FINALS

Depending on M. Angel's work at forward, 1924's third team battled 1921 to a 2-2 tie in the first game of the trio last Monday.

Hard fighting and unsuccessful passing prevailed most of the game, except when the ball was in the hands of the Freshmen forwards, whose shooting was exceptionally good.

Goals: Freshmen 1; 1921: L. Beckwith.

1924: M. Angel, H. Beamides.

1921 OVERPOWERS JUNIORS ON THIRD TEAM IN TWO GAMES

Superior aim and shooting by the Red forwards marked the 1921-Juniors game, 11-0, last Sunday.

In a short while the Red Manager, M. Angel, was up in the air and was held there by the line-up—1924: L. Beckwith, E. Kates, M. Goggin, E. Newell, C. Martin.

1924: C. Baird, E. Williams, M. Kendall, E. Rogers, K. Siler.

Goals: on foal 1921: L. Beckwith, 1924: E. Kates, C. Baird.

1924 TAKES VICTORY FROM 1923 IN SECOND GAME ON FOURTH

In a scrappy game with very little scoring 1924's fourth team outmatched the Sophomores last Wednesday, 6-0.

On Wednesday, 6-0, E. O. Gorham, 24, stood forward for making most of the Freshmen goals in spite of M. Angel's vigorous guarding the whole game, however, and the game lacked spirit.

The line-up was—1924: M. Schwartz, C. Alexander, A. Frazer, M. Morelamp, M. Prewit.

Goals from foal—1924: M. Schwartz, M. Carey.

1924: E. Requa, D. Gardner.
