1922

The College News, 1922-10-18, Vol. 09, No. 03

Students of Bryn Mawr College

Custom Citation

This paper is posted at Scholarship, Research, and Creative Work at Bryn Mawr College. http://repository.brynmawr.edu/bmc_collegenews/220

For more information, please contact repository@brynmawr.edu.
ANCIENT MUSIC PLAYED

The Philadelphia public, as well as the Bryn Mawr public, will have an opportunity on Wednesday, November 1, at the Academy of Music, both at three and eight o'clock in the evening, to see Stuart Walker's production of "The Book of Job," which the Bryn Mawr Alumnae Association of Eastern Pennsylvania is bringing to Philadelphia for the benefit of the Alumnae Regional Scholarship. This has been founded by the Alumnae Association to enable girls of great promise in need of financial assistance to come to Bryn Mawr. Stuart Walker has found a fresh dramatic inspiration in the one of the least modern sources, the Bible. Taking the tremendous spiritual drama of Job, he has transplanted it from the pages of the King James' version to a modern theatrical stage and together with beautiful music and extraordinary light effects has accomplished something well out of the ordinary.

Presented on the stage "The Book of Job" once becomes vivid drama. This contains the requisite "conflict of wills," a seldom equalled dramatic climax, and a technically superb score by Mrs. Porter. This in all details to the requirements of the stage in that definite characters speak in modern language.

For the first time the strains of ancient Hebrew music have been heard in this country. An expert in the authenticity of the rendition of the melodies, the principal instruments used in the music they are arranged for the production are harps.

It is strange that it falls to Stuart Walker's lot to reveal to the American people that the Book of Job is one of the most poignant and noble in the history of drama written or spoken.

VIRGINIA MILLER, '24, ELECTED VICE-PRESIDENT OF UNDERGRADUATE CONSTITUTION Amended and Conference Committee Elected.

Virginia Miller, '24, was elected Vice-President of the Undergraduate Association at a meeting of that body held in Taylor Hall on October 9. Miss Miller, succeeding Marion Russell, '24, who resigned on account of work, was a member of 1924's freshman committee and served on the Cut Committee last year.

Elections were also held for the Conference Committee, a council of undergraduates chosen by the major and senior classes, which confers with the Faculty and represents the undergraduates.

A. Pryor, '24, and C. Goddard, '24, are senior members. E. Pierson, '24, is a junior representative, and another will be chosen at the next meeting.

An amendment of the constitution stating that undergraduates need not be read until within one week after Thanksgiving, and that freshmen should not be allowed to vote until after the Thanksgiving holidays was adopted.

The College Choir was invited to sing at President Park's musical dinner.

SCENE FROM "THE BOOK OF JOB"

ALUMNAE ASSOCIATION TO HONOR PRESIDENT PARK

Pembroke West Given to Alumnae as "Spendings Night at Bryn Mawr"

Two hundred and eighty alumnae are expected to be present at the dinner given by the Alumnae Association, which is to be held Friday night in Pembroke Hall to Miss Marion Edwards Park, President of the College, in honor of her inauguration on Saturday.

Miss Anna Todd, '24, President of the Alumnae Association, will be in the chair and introduce the toastmaster, Miss Elizabeth R. Danforth, President of the class of '39, President Park's class. The speakers will be President Park, Mr. W. Ladd (A. E. Shuahs, '99), a Trustee and Director of the College; Dr. Marion Parish Smith, '91, Professor of Economics; Miss Harriet Bradford, '15; Miss Mary E. Sibley, '13, President's Secretary; and Dean of Women, Miss Susan Cary, '13; Miss Sarah Sibley, '15; Dean of Simmons College, Miss Ann Lawther, '92; Miss J. F. Porter (A. F. Forrest, '96), Miss Mary Breck, '34, Director of the Margaret Mead, Carnegie College and Miss H. D. Pearson (E. W. Winsor, '02).

Pembroke-West has been turned over to the 140 alumnae that are spending the night at Bryn Mawr; beds will be put up (or them in every available inch of room. The undergraduates who live there will spend the night with friends in other halls.

SUMMER SCHOOL HAS SONG TO VOLGA BOAT TUNE

The words to the Summer School's "Gracious Inspiration," written below are set to the music of the "Volga Boat Song," an old Russian folk tune, which was sung in the Cloisters by the Russian Choir last year at commencement time.

Miss-King and Miss Thomas Visit Constantinople

Has Private View of Sultan's Palaces Drinks from Diamond-Studded Holder

"Like the Turks. I have found them a courteous and well-mannered people," said Miss Georgiana Golding King, Professor of History of Art, relating her experiences of her trip abroad this summer.

Miss King, with Miss Lowther, her traveling companion, spent a month with President Thomas in a villa on the Bosphorus, which had been lent to Miss Thomas by Mrs. E. E. Eichelberg, of the Near East Relief. Every day Miss King and Miss Thomas went into Constantinople, where they gave all their time to visiting mosques, museums, and ruins with always a half hour at least in St. Sophia. They also had the good fortune to obtain a private view of the Sultan's palace through the influence of Dorothea Chambers, '19, who is now running the art department of the Constantinople. The Sultan's private secretary, a poet and musician, conducted the party through the palace whose historic admirer Miss King describes as "aristocratic." Most of the rest is modern Empire style and very entertaining. Finally they were served with coffee in diamond-studded holders from a coffee service ornamented with beautiful nineteenth century enameled.
AGGLUTINATION TEST FOR CANCER

With apologies to Leslie L. Jonson

Are you really 100% college-bound? Would you like to find out just how measure your chances of success in first class amongAdds Man Dom? Gauge yourself by the tests given below.

...It is quite easy. First, take a page out of the book and underline the things in the same manner, each time adding the number indicated whenever you can

If you say “Varsity Athletic Songs with fervor, add...

If you have a picture of the Boy in a little houses, only it is the "big house" for me, the six rooms. The family with whom I lived were perfect deers, and took such good care of me and were so wonderfull. When I was a child, I learned about life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness.

If you belong to one of the unlicensed mischief the little boys were more fun to entertain. They learned the "thret R's," and specia...
THE COLLEGE NEWS

DR. SCOTT INVITES COLLEGE TO "WORD MONGERS" AND "CHATTERING BARBERS"

Dr. Charles Scott, Professor of Mathematics, has extended an invitation to the whole College to visit her gardens before they could get a view of the British officer in charge. Leaving the East Miss King spent a day in Italy, and, on her way home motored through Burgundy and stayed two weeks in Paris.

First New Student Has Leading Article on Peace

With leading articles on peace and the international situation by Bertrand Russell and Ralph E. Ely, the first issue of the New Student appeared on October 7th. The New Student is the intercollegiate fortnightly, published by the National Student Forum.

Mr. Russell points out that disaster to the civilizations of Europe and Asia is imminent and that it is the duty of America with her superior economic stability to intervene. Mr. Ely moreover declares that it would not be wise, if the Great War still lasts, for us to send "peace-occasional pacifist" but only to try to avert an righteous war.

Among the other articles are those which discuss liberal opinion among French students, the expansion of Oxford and Cambridge, and the prospective tour of foreign student leaders, to speak at our colleges affiliated with the National Student Forum this winter.

Miss Campbell, graduate in the department of social economy, is writing a book on Chinese immigration.

SCHOOL OF PUBLIC OPINION A SUCCESS THIS SUMMER

Students ranging from Vassar, under graduates, to the Editor of the Baltimore Sun, and ex-Governor Garvin of Rhode Island, gathered at Dr. F. G. Howel's "School of Public Opinion," held at Islesboro, Nantucket, last summer under the leadership of some of the greatest experts in America.

A. Howel, 23, was the only Bryan Mason among the undergraduate present at the School. The report of the schools for 1922 is the general subject of the study. The world was discussed from biological, psychological and historical points of view. Current events in Russia, India, South America were set forth. Experiments in education and co-operation were considered.

The schedule is as follows:

Nov. 9-Hockey Match Games begin.
Dec. 6-Preliminary Swimming Meet.
Dec. 16-Final Swimming Meet.
Feb. 8—Water Polo Match Games begin.
March 9—Preliminary Gymnasium Meet.
March 19—Final Gymnasium Meet.
April 21—Preliminary Track Meet.
April 23—Tennis, Matches begin.
April 28—Final Track Meet.
May 7—Basketball Match Games begin.

News in Brief

B. Tubbs, 24, has been elected Junior member of the Cut Committee.
H. Walker, 24, has been taken on by the Business Board of the lawmen in place of B. Pearson, 24, who resigned.

ATHLETIC SCHEDULE FOR YEAR "PRINCIPALLY SAME AS USUAL"

The schedule of this year's athletic season, which was arranged by the Athletic Board and by the first team managers, is, with one exception, the same as last year. To avoid the confusion of the combination of water polo, gymnastics, work and swimming has been made but the swimming meet will be held this fall instead of in February.

The schedule is as follows:

Nor: 9—Hockey Match Games begin.
Dec. 6-Preliminary Swimming Meet.
Dec. 16—Final Swimming Meet.
Feb. 8—Water Polo Match Games begin.
March 9—Preliminary Gymnasium Meet.
March 19—Final Gymnasium Meet.
April 21—Preliminary Track Meet.
April 23—Tennis, Matches begin.
April 28—Final Track Meet.
May 7—Basketball Match Games begin.

From Gilbert's

"Word mongers" and "chattering barbers," Gilbert called those of his predecessors who asserted that a wound made by a magnetized needle was painless, that a magnet will attract silver, that the diamond will draw iron, that the magnet thrills and dies in the absence of iron, that a magnet, magnetized and taken with sweetened water, will cure headaches and prevent fat.

Before Gilbert died in 1603, he had done much to explain magnetism and electricity through experiment. He found that by hammering iron held in a magnetic meridian it can be magnetized. He discovered that the compass needle is controlled by the earth's magnetism and that one magnet can remagnetize another that has lost its power. He noted the common electrical attraction of rubbed bodies, among them diamonds, as well as glass, crystals, and stones, and was the first to study electricity as a distinct force.

"Not in books, but in things themselves, look for knowledge," he shouted. This man helped to revolutionize methods of thinking-helped to make electricity what it has become.

His felicities were little concerned with him and his experiments.

"Will Queen Eliz abeth marry—and whom?" they were asking.

Eli abet's flirtations mean little to us. Gilbert's method means much. It is the method that has made modern electricity what it has become, the method which enabled the Research Laboratories of the General Electric Company to discover new electrical principles now applied in transmitting power for hundreds of miles, in lighting homes electrically, in aiding physicians with the X-rays, in freeing civilization from drudgery.

General Electric
	General Office Company
	Schenectady, N.Y.
In the New Book Room

The Rose-Garden of Sadi, and Wisdom of the East Street, by L. Cramer-Bryant and S. A. Kapadia. The Wisdom of the East Street are written to be "the ambassadors of goodwill and understanding between East and West, the old world of thought and the new of actions." Said, the original author of the rose garden, was born in Shiraz in 1193 A.D., "a Derwisch" who travelled out of Persia in the blue gown of his order with many patches sewn thereon, carrying in his hand a Dervish's staff, a little man and slight with eyes overflowing with mirth and kindness wherever he walked joyously from Isfahan into Syria.

For many years Sa'di travelled and adventured until at last he went to live at a hermit's cell and then, when he was over sixty, his "Rose Garden" was written. It, as well as his other two books, "The Book of Council" and "The Garden of Perfumes," is taught even now in all the schools of Mohammedan India and Persia. The Rose Garden is 5 & collection in poetry and prose of the wisdom of many years. There are in it quatrains which remind one of the "Hobynaya" and fables which favor of "Amor". Of friendship, Sa'di says: "He is no friend who in thy hour of pride brings of his love and calls himself thy kinsman."

He is a friend who hates thee in silence and changes the door upon the wolf out-side."--Rubaiyat of Sa'di.

The Rose-Garden of Sadi, as Wisdom of the East Street, by L. Cramer-Bryant and S. A. Kapadia. The Wisdom of the East Street are written to be "the ambassadors of goodwill and understanding between East and West, the old world of thought and the new of actions." Said, the original author of the rose garden, was born in Shiraz in 1193 A.D., "a Derwisch" who travelled out of Persia in the blue gown of his order with many patches sewn thereon, carrying in his hand a Dervish's staff, a little man and slight with eyes overflowing with mirth and kindness wherever he walked joyously from Isfahan into Syria.

For many years Sa'di travelled and adventured until at last he went to live at a hermit's cell and then, when he was over sixty, his "Rose Garden" was written. It, as well as his other two books, "The Book of Council" and "The Garden of Perfumes," is taught even now in all the schools of Mohammedan India and Persia. The Rose Garden is 5 & collection in poetry and prose of the wisdom of many years. There are in it quatrains which remind one of the "Hobynaya" and fables which favor of "Amor". Of friendship, Sa'di says: "He is no friend who in thy hour of pride brings of his love and calls himself thy kinsman."

He is a friend who hates thee in silence and changes the door upon the wolf out-side."--Rubaiyat of Sa'di.
If you have experienced delays, mistakes, overcharges, or unworthy results in your printed matter, why not end your annoyance now by communicating with us?

CATALOGS, examination papers and stationery should be exactly right, delivered on time and at reasonable charges. Expert, interested service alone can relieve you of rearmostations. Our expert service lifts all your printing trouble off your shoulders. We can devise styles to suit your taste and carry them through all your work. We are specialists in educational printing. Catalogs, monographs, examination papers, bulletins, foreign languages, school and college magazines, class records, diplomas—work that is "all Greek" to most printers—all are handled by our large organization in a way that has pleased many of the best-known institutions in the East. Some have employed us for twenty-five years.

No piece of work is too large or too small to receive our prompt and courteous attention.

THE JOHN C. WINSTON COMPANY

1006-1016 ARCH STREET, PHILADELPHIA, PA.

A Coat of Squirrel
For the Big Games

SO APPROPRIATE FOR THE FOOTBALL GAMES is the charming model featured above. Soft grey Squirrel developed with the most authentic features of the new Mode.

Gunther
Fifth Avenue at 36th Street
NEW YORK

Furriers for More Than a Century

MANN & DILKS
112 CHESTNUT STREET

TOP COATS
English and Scotch Woolens in New Overcheck and Plaidback effects. Raglan or set-in sleeves—Roomy models. Fur collars as well as the strictly tailored styles.

SWEATERS
New camel's hair and other fine wools in attractive styles.

MANN & DILKS
112 CHESTNUT STREET

Guests in "Quality Street"

Guests in "Quality Street" greet Whitman's quality group of distinguished andy packages as well as friends.

In any social gathering they give an added sense of sociability. There's magic in eating together. There's conversation as shared whenever the houses produce the Sampler, Rectangular, Flanry Island, or any others of the favorites in "The Quality Group."

Whitman's famous candies are sold by
Maxwell Kaplin
H. B. Wallace
Frank W. Prickett, Rosemont
News from Other Colleges

The Oxford Debating team last week completed its highly successful tour of the United States, where it has argued the affirmative on such diverse questions of university life as "Resolved, That the British monarch should succeed to the throne of the United States," and "Resolved, That the British government should adopt a more aggressive policy against Germany." The team, under the guidance of Dr. J. Irving Pichel, was received with warmth at all its stops, and its arguments were met with enthusiasm.

Milton College has inaugurated a new course in the study of English literature, which will be offered for the first time this fall. The course is designed to provide an introduction to the period from Chaucer to Shakespeare.

The undergraduate course in biology at the University of California has been revised to emphasize the study of plants and animals in their natural habitats. The course includes field trips to local natural areas and laboratories.

The New York University School of Law has announced the appointment of Dr. J. Irving Pichel as its new dean. Dr. Pichel, a well-known scholar in the field of Roman law, will assume his duties in September.

The Carden College of Business Administration has introduced a new course in accounting, designed to provide students with a comprehensive understanding of the principles and procedures of financial accounting. The course includes both theoretical and practical components.

Photometry

Mr. Albert Weintraub, long-time member of the faculty of the Carden College of Business Administration, has been appointed to the new chair of the department of accounting. Mr. Weintraub, who has been a member of the faculty for more than 20 years, is well-known for his expertise in accounting and financial management.

WIRAL L. MAYDEN

HOUSEKEEPING HARDWARE

PAINTS  LOCS MOCTHiNG

308 LANCASTER AVE.  BRYN MAWR

Whittendale Riding Academy

Saddle, Bridle, and Children's Cloths for Hire.

Instructions, Individual Attention or in Class.

22 N. Merion Ave. Telephone 451 BRYN MAWR

---

Calendar

Friday, October 20
7:30 P.M.--Alumnae dinner to celebrate the fiftieth anniversary of the Bryn Mawr College Park.

Saturday, October 21
11:00 A.M.--Inauguration of President Park in the Gymnasium, or in the Clifton Hall.

20:00 P.M.--Luncheon after the inauguration in the Clifton Hall.

Sunday, October 22
7:30 P.M.--Chapel, led by Dr. W. T. Abel, missionary in New Guinea, under auspices of the Eastern Congregational Missionary Society.

---

In Philadelphia

Academy of Music: Concert by Philadelphia Orchestra, featuring Dr. W. T. Abel, "New Symphony," Monday evening, October 22, at 7:30. Dr. Abel's composition has been described as a "brILLIANT and INNOVATIVE WORK." Ticket prices: $2.50, $1.50, $1.00.

Metropolitan Opera House: "Eggs" Opera.--Dorothy Kane in the "Carmen." Friday last week of "Rain," with Jeanne Eagels. Each evening, P.M.

