Swarthmore Defeated in Swimming Meet

Daniels Stellar Performance in First Varsity Victory in Five Years.

BRONSON NEW CAPTAIN

Led by M. Frothingham, the swimming team went into the first time during the four years of competition. The meet showed well-rounded talent and discipline at their place. The only poor showing was the relay which lost by a couple of lengths.

Fench Accents CONSIDERABLY excellence.

French Club Gives Finished Performance of "Moliere's Les Femmes Savantes".

Sympathetic Interpretations of Both Character and Straight Parts Give Victory to Clever Ones; Costumes and Setting Effective.

French Club gives successfully the Stuart House of the famous and complete costume to the exuberant romances of French 16 the scenes of history to prove their versatility. That the per- sonage was extremely distracting directly by intelligent delivery of clever lines in a play where there are no dramatic situations to serve up the audience shows that her year's success was not accidental.

The plot of the play is already carefully explained. Playing the part of the child, she directed a perfect, fluent, and intelligent performance. Her looks, her airs and graces, her voice and movements are a perfect model. We hope for an early spring.

Voyage of the French pupil to America is described.

The title and theme of Eleanor"Yea-ker's story "River" would suggest that it was an at ttempt to present the dual reality of life. The river, with all its possibilities, is perhaps a symbolic representation of the unknown or the unknown possibilities of the future. The water is calm, the reader at any rate, a place inevitably suggestive of cheerfulness. Miss Yeakel has told the story with commendable forth-rightness and simplicity, but there are signs of inexperience in the handling of the dramas and in the characterization.
The one branch of emotional restraint is in the cases where Mrs. Halley is at the window, where there is a faint resonance of those inner characters who always dominate their own theme just as the door has cloaked a reclining figure.
The second installment of Charlotte Kingsley's "Water" for my flowers shows a gain in steadiness of pace.
The author seems, not unattractively,"n be on surer ground with her heroine than with her men characters. Here there are cleverer sudden flights and quick drops; the transitions are smoothly made from ordinary external events to the moments of exalted contemplation that come to Pharaoh. The analysis of a scarpula and a fine temperature is made carefully and sensitively. The style, with its curious combination, at times, of a Persian sentence, an intricacy and a Hemingway
sentence, an intricacy and a Hemingway sentence, is also often quite meaningless in passages of real beauty.

Still Competing

The following stories are continuing in the competition of the editorial board of the News.

ols, 24.

an injustice to a story that has an unusual amount of substance.
Although this number of the "Lantern" taken as a whole, leaves one with a slight er sense of dissatisfaction, it has very many pages of sensitive and mature writing and it has one prime virtue throughout-un-affectedness. There is little of the straining after effect, the over proportionation of the "接受-to-loss" attitude, which may be avoided by a simpler manner of saying things, and which really do mark so much modern work. An honest of this sort seems to be characteristic of the "Lantern" and is a quality which can compensate for many minor lapses of inspiration.

What the NEW HUMIDOR PACK means to Camel Smokers

The Humidor Pack insures that it prevents the fine tobaccos of Camels from drying out and losing any of their delightful flavor. Aside from cheap tobacco, two factors in a cigarette can mar the smoker’s pleasure:

- Fine particles of peppery dust if left in the tobacco by inefficient cleaning methods sting and irritate delicate throat membrane.
- Dry tobacco, robbed of its natural moisture by scouring or by evaporators gives off a hot smoke that burns the throat with every inhalation.

We take every precaution against these factors here at Winston-Salem. A special vacuum cleaning apparatus removes dust and condensation from the new Humidor Pack prevents dryness.

Check the difference yourself. It is a very simple matter to check the difference between Humidor Pack Camels and other ordinary dry cigarettes. First of all you can feel the difference as you roll the cigarettes between your fingers. Camels are full-bodied and pliable. A dry cigarette crumbles under pressure and sheds tobacco.

If you will hold a cigarette to each ear and roll them with your fingers you can actually hear the difference. The real test of course is to smoke them. And here’s where the new Humidor Pack proves a real blessing to the smoker. As you inhale the cool, fragrant smoke from a Camel you get all the mildness and magic of the fine tobaccos of which it is blended.

But when you draw in the hot smoke from a dried cigarette see how flat and brackish it is by comparison and how harsh it is to your throat.

If you are a regular Camel smoker you have already noticed what proper care means of the cigarette means. But if you haven’t tried Camels in the new Humidor Pack you have a new adventure with Lady Nicotine in store.

Switch your affections for just one day, then go back to your old love tomorrow if you can.
