Roaring Bonfire
Will Be Climax
Of Parade Night

Freshmen, Sophomores
To Struggle Fiercely
Around Fire

Daytimes on Tuesday, September 20, may be listed as the opening of the winter season in Ardmore. For the year cannot be considered officially open until 8 o'clock that night, when Parade Night begins.

Saturday Night and the two or three preceding are the beginning of the year's traditional Freshman-Sophomore rivalry, this particular brand of rivalry finding its source in a song. A song is selected by the Juniors, each member of the Freshmen, to which the Juniors add original words, which are kept completely secret. Freshmen have been known to awakew pieces of paper on which appear the words of the song, and often find singing complete arias from "Carmen" in the shower in order to make sure the Sophomore had not sneaked off the trail. The Sophomores, however, are like the Marines—no rules barred—and will stoop to any treachery in order to conquer. Beware of the Freshman confused girl who comes up to you with "What is the tune yesterday? What is the tune today?"

Fireman's Band
Parade Night begins for the Freshmen at Pembroke A. but the Sophomores are already on the hockey field dancing around a huge bonfire.

Led by the famous Fireman's Band, Pembroke A. and BonnieAnne A are a sight to behold. The Sophomore march through the night singing their song until suddenly they are quiet and scrambling madly down the hills as the Sophomore somersaults surrounded fire. The Sophomores are singing at this point, a quicky-written parody to what they hope is the Freshman tune. The band continues to dance and perhaps get hotter and hotter, and the fire is broken.

Harmony again reigns, however, as everyone gathers to sing college and class songs in Pembroke Arch, and hall parties given by the Sophomores for the Freshmen follow immediately after.

Parade Night represents the epitome of this long tradition of song snatching and rough-house.

Seven Non-Res Freshman to Give Smoke-cell New '52 Atmosphere

The class of '52 has seven non-resident freshmen who have taken over the smoking room in the bottom of the Library. Once installed there, they may expect to play banjo at all odd hours to envious residents who don't care to sit outside for their cigarettes. The non-residents are in a nimble puzzle, to the best features of a boodle, a restaurant, a scholastic cell, and a clique. Of course, the所产生的非本地学生发现她们自己被困在了一个由非本地学生组成的社区中，每个成员都对对方的吸引力表示欣赏。这个地方也许可能被描述为一个由非本地学生组成的社区，每个成员都对对方的吸引力表示欣赏。这个地方也许可能被描述为一个由非本地学生组成的社区，每个成员都对对方的吸引力表示欣赏。这个地方也许可能被描述为一个由非本地学生组成的社区，每个成员都对对方的吸引力表示欣赏。这个地方也许可能被描述为一个由非本地学生组成的社区，每个成员都对对方的吸引力表示欣赏。这个地方也许可能被描述为一个由非本地学生组成的社区，每个成员都对对方的吸引力表示欣赏。这个地方也许可能被描述为一个由非本地学生组成的社区，每个成员都对对方的吸引力表示欣赏。这个地方也许可能被描述为一个由非本地学生组成的社区，每个成员都对对方的吸引力表示欣赏。这个地方也许可能被描述为一个由非本地学生组成的社区，每个成员都对对方的吸引力表示欣赏。这个地方也许可能被描述为一个由非本地学生组成的社区，每个成员都对对方的吸引力表示欣赏。这个地方也许可能被描述为一个由非本地学生组成的社区，每个成员都对对方的吸引力表示欣赏。这个地方也许可能被描述为一个由非本地学生组成的社区，每个成员都对对方的吸引力表示欣赏。这个地方也许可能被描述为一个由非本地学生组成的社区，每个成员都对对方的吸引力表示欣赏。这个地方也许可能被描述为一个由非本地学生组成的社区，每个成员都对对方的吸引力表示欣赏。这个地方也许可能被描述为一个由非本地学生组成的社区，每个成员都对对方的吸引力表示欣赏。这个地方也许可能被描述为一个由非本地学生组成的社区，每个成员都对对方的吸引力表示欣赏。这个地方也许可能被描述为一个由非本地学生组成的社区，每个成员都对对方的吸引力表示欣赏。这个地方也许可能被描述为一个由非本地学生组成的社区，每个成员都对对方的吸引力表示欣赏。这个地方也许可能被描述为一个由非本地学生组成的社区，每个成员都对对方的吸引力表示欣赏。这个地方也许可能被描述为一个由非本地学生组成的社区，每个成员都对对方的吸引力表示欣赏。这个地方也许可能被描述为一个由非本地学生组成的社区，每个成员都对对方的吸引力表示欣赏。这个地方也许可能被描述为一个由非本地学生组成的社区，每个成员都对对方的吸引力表示欣赏。这个地方也许可能被描述为一个由非本地学生组成的社区，每个成员都对对方的吸引力表示欣赏。这个地方也许可能被描述为一个由非本地学生组成的社区，每个成员都对对方的吸引力表示欣赏。这个地方也许可能被描述为一个由非本地学生组成的社区，每个成员都对对方的吸引力表示欣赏。这个地方也许可能被描述为一个由非本地学生组成的社区，每个成员都对对方的吸引力表示欣赏。这个地方也许可能被描述为一个由非本地学生组成的社区，每个成员都对对方的吸引力表示欣赏。这个地方也许可能被描述为一个由非本地学生组成的社区，每个成员都对对方的吸引力表示欣赏。这个地方也许可能被描述为一个由非本地学生组成的社区，每个成员都对对方的吸引力表示欣赏。这个地方也许可能被描述为一个由非本地学生组成的社区，每个成员都对对方的吸引力表示欣赏。这个地方也许可能被描述为一个由非本地学生...
NEWS Suggests Where to Lunch, Dine and Dance

The mural building division of the college will feature the following vital statistics as a guide to extra-curricular activities in the more frivolous specie. A Bryn Mawr student will eat, per haps 5 to 8 meals a day, and we pass on to you a list of tried and true eating places. Here's the straightest gourmet. We do not guarantee cure for all types of millenium breakdown, but the night life of Philadelphia and vicinity is not to be underestimated. Within walking distances: If you enjoy an evening of the arts, you are starved after laf, or if Aunt Jenny shows up unannounced and you need a place to order take-out for dinner, place the clock on the Illino, and in any case it is the preferred place. For more elaborate tastes try the Cottage Tearoom on Montgomery Avenue, the Commune Kitchen (marvelous ice cream). Meth's in the Vill is both a lunch and a bakery. If you like, many must have food before you go to bed, try the Greenhouse (Bryn Mawr) for cakes and elaborate sundaes. Haute Heaven is seen in hamburgers, in milkshakes and French-fried potatoes.

After you can dance at the Covered Wagon and eat a most satisfactory dinner. The Blue Comet on Lancaster Pike offers sandwiches, coffee and a juke box. More dining than drinking at the Beltowne Inn. General Wayne and Wynnewood House offers dinner or cocktails at McIntyre's Manor Bar in Ardmore for turkey dinners. The Mill hill Cafe on Green Lane, or try the King of Prussia Road: When the place is stopped. If you must have name bands and don't mind sitting on the floor between dances, you can go to Sunny brook in Pottstown. For a cocktail followed by a good sleek dinner, there's the Chateau Collette on Lancaster Pike in Ardmore. For drinks or desserts or in the middle of a shopping spree, go to the West End in West Chester, the Dacha on Walnut Street, or at Wisehart in Wyomissing Village, or try the King of Prussia Inn when the place is stopped. Then, of course, the famous Scotch Wool Right is open all night.

You can bank money in the Bank at Haverford, and we also... have some flowers to bloom in your mind, Blueatone is in the Vill.

To Be Cast Soon

Vill, Ardmore Provide All Freshmen Needs

Hardware Store, also in Bryn Mawr, carries all the in-campus and baby binky you'll want to sustain your family through the next two, or as the small hours while Freshman Camps are being written. To those you're worrying about, in Bryn Mawr itself Nancy Malone at the Village Style Shop, and Marty's Shop, and also Joyce Lewis and Miss Nevel in the Office of Student Activities, will provide you with a selection of shirts, sweaters, and dresses, and all the other sundries you need. A little further away, in Ardmore, you can find Ye Lady Cakes, in the French's Dressing, or Elizabeth K. Brown's Dressing Room. For the many, who may try the Arnold Shoe Shop in Ard­more, or for practically any of those things, there's a good supply.

Soda Fountain Wants Jerkers
To Help Serve Hungry Horde

If you can whip up a quick lemonade, a grilled cheese sandwich, or any other concoct, contact Sherry Cowgill '51, or Winfrid Sexton, '55, immediately. Even if you can't, sign up to work at the soda fountain and learn the art of confection from soup to nuts.

As for the rest of the college, come, eat, drink, and enjoy the facilities located on the first floor of Goodhart next to the hockey field. When the faculty were not only hungry, but also excited by the upcoming fall games, they decided to try out new ideas. The faculty members agreed that the soda fountain offered a variety of foods that were not as expensive as the campus dining hall.

Encouraged by Saturday's warm sunshine, the Class of '52 decided to throw a party their way. They filled the glee in the field with jazz and music, who "really came to watch." The faculty were not to be stopped and the final score after four innings of spirited playing was 25-5.

A special breakfast is offered on the second floor of Goodhart. The menu includes "smoked salmon, fruit, and "untempered beverages" all included on the menu. "You can ask for a peanut butter, jelly, mustard, and lettuce sandwich and no one will think you are crazy," added Winnie Sexton.

(Requests and comments are encouraged. To help serve hungry hordes, the fountain is open more often. Sherry Cowgill '51, or Winfrid Sexton, '55, are cordially invited to sign up to work at the soda fountain and learn the art of cookery."

Accessibility and convenience were among the most important activities of the college, i.e. the Bryn Mawr Summer Camp. The co-heads have decided to offer more activities on campus, including a special breakfast offered on Saturday morning. The second half of the first inning augured little better for the faculty team. With the faculty first at bat, the game opened in lively tempo. When the faculty had chuffed up eight runs and three out of twenty-four, Winnie Sexton was heard to remark to a latecomer, "but it's only the first half of the other cup of tea." Although a sage upperclassman remarked, "Too many of the Freshmen are thinking about the future and not enough about the past." The Class of '52 has concluded that the class of '52 not only has quantity, but has a fine quality to it that we are glad to have a part of Bryn Mawr.
